Dear Kelly,

The two examiner reports on your Master of Philosophy thesis resubmission have been received. These are attached along with each examiner's recommendation form.

Based on the examiners' recommendations and their written reports, my decision as Dean of the School of Graduate Research is that your thesis has failed to meet the required standard and that the Master of Philosophy will not be awarded.

I appreciate that this is a very disappointing outcome for you.

Under the Higher Degree Appeals and Complaints Regulations you have the right to appeal this decision. An appeal must comprise a written statement of the circumstances of, and grounds for, the appeal, together with supporting evidence, if available, and must be lodged with the Secretary of the Research Committee, Alison Beardsmore (alison.beardsmore@waikato.ac.nz), not more than 21 days from the date of this letter.

Yours sincerely,
